

Student Success Services and Programs

Student Success Center (SSC) – Assists students with academic goal-setting and skill development, personal transition to the university setting, study skills, effective decision-making, tutoring, financial literacy, and other services.

Locations: Thomas Cooper Library (mezzanine), Sims Hall, Bates House, Columbia Hall.

Phone: 777-1000

Website: www.sa.sc.edu/ssc/

Academic Coaching and Engagement (ACE) – Provides free academic success coaching to help students reach their academic goals.

Locations: Thomas Cooper Library (mezzanine), Sims Hall, Bates House, Columbia Hall

Phone: 777-1000

Website: www.sa.sc.edu/ssc/acecoaching/

Supplemental Instruction (SI) – Provides study sessions for many critical first-year courses led by qualified and trained undergraduate SI leaders. Courses that typically employ SI include first-year biology, chemistry, mathematics, logic, physics, and psychology.

Location: Thomas Cooper Library (Mezzanine)

Phone: 777-1000

Website: www.sa.sc.edu/ssc/supplementalinstruction/

Math Tutoring Center – Free tutoring to University students. Sponsored by the Department of Mathematics, the center is staffed with talented undergraduate and graduate students who can answer questions about material in MATH 111, 115, 122, 141, 142, 170. The center also maintains a list of private tutors for math and statistics.

Location: LeConte College, Room 105

Website: www.math.sc.edu/math-tutoring-center

Writing Center – Free consultations to University students, faculty, and staff. Sponsored by the Department of English Language and Literature, the Writing Center provides feedback to help writers accomplish their goals. Appointments are recommended.

Locations: Byrnes 703 (main); satellites in Bates House, Columbia Hall, Sims Hall, and Thomas Cooper Library

Phone: 777-2078.

Website: artsandsciences.sc.edu/write/

USC Connect – Supports students in making the most of their education by integrating course work with first-hand learning experiences outside of class. Coordinates Graduation with Leadership Distinction in Community Service, Global Learning, Professional and Civic Engagement, or Research.

Location: Thomas Cooper Library, Suite L132

Phone: 777-3272

Website: www.sc.edu/usconnect/

University Advising Center – Helps students understand the process of advising and its importance in their progress to graduation. Also helps transition students changing their majors and connecting students to other advising resources, including the First-Year Advisors.

Location: Close-Hipp Building, Suite 102

Phone: 777-1222

E-mail: advising@sc.edu

Website: www.sc.edu/advising/uac

Leadership Studies Minor – Prepares students for a lifelong process of leadership development and action. Grounded in a rigorous and multidisciplinary course of study, the minor introduces a range of perspectives and models of leadership.

Contact: Department of Political Science or Carolina Leadership Initiative

Websites: artsandsciences.sc.edu/poli/Undergraduate and www.sc.edu/provost/leadership/

Study Abroad Office – Provides information about study-abroad programs and opportunities.

Location: Close-Hipp Building, Suite 453

Phone: 777-7557

Website: studyabroad.sc.edu/

Office of Undergraduate Research – Offers University-wide opportunities for research, scholarship and creativity in students chosen field. Administers the Magellan Scholars Program and Discovery Day.

Location: Legare College, Room 120

Phone: 777-1141

Website: www.sc.edu/our/index.shtml

Career Center – Helps students develop career plans, enhance communication skills, create effective resumes and provide outreach for internships both within and beyond the University.

Location: Thomas Cooper Library, 5th Floor

Phone: 803-777-7280

Website: www.sc.edu/career/