

This states that every finite abelian group is a direct product of cyclic groups of prime power order.