ACTUARIAL EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (AEDP)

AEDP Advantage for Early Career Professionals

5 – 7 Year Program

3 – 4 Rotations, 18 – 24 months each

Core actuarial areas

- Pricing
- Reserving
- Forecasting
- Risk Management

Additional business areas you can explore

- Data & Analytics
- Investment Management
- Operations
- Underwriting

In the AEDP, we push you to work hard and learn fast, but we also know how to have fun together, too. We believe in celebrating passed exams and personal milestones. We also focus on carving out time for career development, social, and community service activities.

Program Highlights

Developing Actuaries into Business Leaders

- Inclusive community of associates and alumni focused on mentorship and professional development
- Exam support – exam fees, study materials, paid study time, exam raises
- Long term leadership and career development opportunities
- Employment flexibility in traditional and non-traditional actuarial roles

AEDP Advantage for Summer Interns

Our internship is an 11-week program designed to identify future full-time associates for the program. Interns apply analytical and technical skills, as well as business acumen and strong communication skills, to complete a project with significant impact to Cigna's businesses.

Also included in the internship:

- Executive and actuarial speaker series
- Case studies and technical trainings
- Highly competitive hourly rate and paid housing close to offices
- Accessible actuarial community focused on supporting, mentoring, and developing summer interns as actuaries and leaders
- Trip to headquarters to hear from senior leaders and network with others interns and program members

Program Highlights
