

He showed that polynomials can be made arbitrarily close to any given continuous function.