

He showed that any continuous function mapping a compact convex set into itself admits a fixed point.