The most common axiomatization of arithmetic, whose non-logical symbols are constant symbol 0 and unary function symbol S ("successor").