Professor George Androulakis
Department of Mathematics
University of South Carolina

Dear Professor Androulakis,

Thank you for your application to the CAS Faculty Travel Initiative. The college will commit up to $850 for reimbursement of travel as proposed in your application. All expenditures must be in compliance with university policies and procedures. The current travel policy is available at: FINA 1.00. Funding of this award will be conditional until documentation of acceptance has been submitted to our office.

The commitment number established by the college budget office is #22T-4021, and funding will be handled via the usual reimbursement process after the travel has taken place. For reimbursement, please submit a reimbursement form and attach a copy of your TRV and conference acceptance if applicable. Please note that requests for reimbursement must be made within 30 days of the expenses being incurred.

Congratulations on your successful application and I wish you much success in your travels.

Sincerely,

Joel H. Samuels
