Professor George Androulakis
Department of Mathematics
University of South Carolina

Dear Professor Androulakis,

Thank you for your application to the CAS Faculty Research Initiative. The college will commit up to $5000 for the research activities proposed in your application. The amount allocated must be expended by December 31, 2019. All expenditures must be in compliance with University policies and procedures. The commitment will be established by the college budget office, and funding will be handled via the usual reimbursement process after the expenditure. Please follow the standard procedure for reimbursement by working with your business manager to submit a reimbursement form to the dean's office.

Please submit a report of your research activities funded by this initiative upon its completion, but no later than December 31, 2019.

Thank you again for the submission of your application and your dedication to research in the College of Arts & Sciences.

Sincerely,

Lacy K. Ford
